ATTORNEY COMMENTS:

Attorney Craven stated that Kent Gray offered a proposal for the Village to take advantage of him removing the late fees in order to pay off the alleged outstanding attorney fees.

Other Reports:

Chief Yingling stated that the new squad car has arrived and is now in service.

In an effort to address concerns about parking in the street where space is limited, there cannot be law enforcement without proper ordinance to specify such restrictions. Therefore, it is suggested that the Board review and revise such ordinances.

Trustee Van Fossan reported on a few lawn maintenance issues that have been resolved at Kalb's house on Carman and the 2948 South Fourth however, there is one exception on South Second St. Which is mostly fixed.

Trustee LaRussa stated that while a couple of bikes have been donated there is still need for Bicycle helmets for the Easter Egg Hunt.

PRESIDENT'S COMMENTS:

President Petrosky congratulated those who recently became newly elected officials. In addition, suggested there should be a special meeting scheduled for Tuesday – April 23, 2019 @ 5:00 P.M. to discuss parking in the Village of Southern View, and the Board agreed.

ADJOURNMENT:

There being no further business, President Petrosky adjourned the meeting at 6:45 p.m.
