Health/Safety:

Trustee Van Fossan commented on a few lawn issues of concern along with, the property owner of 3409 South Third, who said that he may be in town next week to get the grass mowed even though it was in foreclosure.

President Petrosky suggested posting a seven (7) day notice on that particular property, then if it does not cleaned up the Village will have it mowed, with a lien placed on the property.

After a conversation with the property owner of 3003 Carman. Trustee Van Fossan was told they would call back with a plan of action; as did the resident at 3300 of So. Third. The property owner of 3352 South Third complained of the next door neighbors parking their inoperable vehicles incorrectly, and then trespassing to enter/exit their own drive way. Therefore, A notice of ten (10) days was given to stop the trespassing and remove the inoperable vehicles.

Trustee McLaughlin was not present; therefore no report.

Trustee James L. Foster commented on the pesticide training for public works crew that prevents pick-up to begin as scheduled; and, It will resume again on Thursday.
